Doors PLATES.—Mr. J. P. Robinson, of this city, called on us yesterday with a new door plate, with which he proposes supplying those of our citizens who desire such an article. The plate is very neat and substantial, and supplies the place and looks about as well as a silver plate, and yet costs only about one-eighth as much. We recommend Mr. Robinson to our citizens, and hope they will patronize him liberally.

THE PRICE OF BUTTER.—Sundry house-keepers in Boston have formed a league against eating butter, except one pound a week, till the price comes down to thirty cents. While we doubt the allegation that the high price of this article is wholly chargeable upon speculators, we commend the determination. PROTACUED MESTING WILL COMPROTECTED MESTING WILL COMPR

The Courr adjourned at noon, holding only a half day's session. It meets to day at 90'clock.

RIVER.—The river was slowly falling yesterday, with about four feet in the channel.

The Forest City and Financier passed down from Pittsburgh.

The New State and Bayard left in the morning for Parkersburg. The former carried out the ministers going to Parkersburg in attendance on the Pressy-thrian Synod to meet in that city.
